

Ross School of Business Friedland Family Goldman Gives Scholarship Criteria and Application Outline

Criteria:

- Must be a full time Undergraduate student (12+ credits) at Ross School of Business.
- Must be able to show documented diagnosis of Language-based Learning Disability; such as Dyslexia.
- Must write a short essay. Topic may change each year.
- Abide by the Ross Honor Code and the Ross Student Code of Conduct.

Acceptable forms of supporting documented diagnosis:

1. If, registered with the Services for Students with Disabilities Office, www.ssd.umich.edu, with Dyslexia.
 - a. Copy of Accommodation Letter from Service for Students with Disabilities Office
AND
 - b. Signed Release of Information form

*Note: by signing the Release of Information form, you will be allowing Ross Financial Aid to contact Service for Students with Disabilities to confirm your Language-based Learning Disability diagnosis. ******

OR

2. Letter from health professional
 - a. Letter from health professional must confirm Language-based Learning Disability diagnosis.
 - b. Must be on letterhead, dated, and signed by health professional.

Contact rossfinaid@umich.edu with questions.
Be sure to include your 8 digit UMID number in all correspondence.